International Lawyers in Alcoholics Anonymous

35th Annual ILAA Conference

Welcome to our state!

We are delighted to have you in Indianapolis for the Annual Meeting of International Lawyers in Alcoholics Anonymous.

Terry Harrell and her committees have spent many months planning an outstanding conference in our highly congenial city. While staying in Indianapolis we hope you will take the time to enjoy some of the downtown venues that make Indy such a fine place to live. Only minutes away from the host hotel are the Indiana State Museum, Eiteljorg Museum, and the Indianapolis Zoo.

I hope you will enjoy Indiana's capital. The weather in October is usually beautiful, but just in case it doesn't cooperate, the Hyatt is connected through a series of elevated walkways to restaurants, shopping, and theaters. There is plenty to keep everyone busy.

Work hard, play hard, and enjoy your stay!

Sincerely,
Randall T. Shepard
Chief Justice of Indiana

Lucas Oil Stadium

Lucas Oil Stadium is a multi-use, all-weather venue that features a retractable roof. The home of the NFL's Indianapolis Colts seats 63,000 for football games and will be connected to the Indiana Convention Center via a climate-controlled walkway.

The IMS Hall of Fame Museum has one of the world's largest, most varied collections of racing, classic and antique cars including the Marmon Wasp, the first car to win the Indianapolis 500.

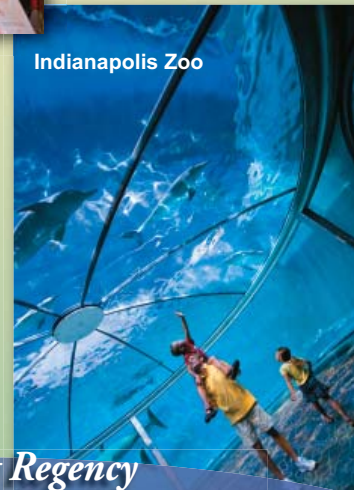

Indianapolis Motor Speedway Hall of Fame Museum

Circle Centre Mall

Circle Centre Mall is in the heart of downtown, just steps away from Monument Circle. Anchored by Nordstrom and Carson Pirie Scott, Circle Centre features 100 specialty stores, fine dining, food court and convenient parking.

Indianapolis Zoo

The Indianapolis Zoo has grown into a world-class facility hosting a million visitors each year and playing a major role in worldwide conservation. The completely submerged dolphin dome is the first of its kind in the world.
